

FASTFLOW WATER MONITOR : - Stainless steel water monitors (also known as “Cannons”) suitable for a variety of uses from fixed and mobile fire fighting operations, Industrial Plant wash down, and dust suppression where Operators are protected from high discharge pressures by eliminating hand held nozzles. Manually controlled with vertical elevation on axis of approximately 75° above to 75° below and horizontal movement either way through 360° continuous rotation. Fully serviceable stainless / neoprene rotary swivel valves with sealed roller bearings and available in 50mm & 40mm diameter with optional tapered straight jet or variable diffuser discharge nozzle. Available with BSP inlet connection or mounting flange as required.

